FOOTBALL

This year the Flying Eagles, under the leadership of Coach Nelson Bragg, enjoyed the most successful season in recent years. They started off like possible state champions, winning four of their first five games, but their lack of depth became evident when injuries hit the Eagles during the latter part of the season.

In Memoriam

The feelings that are deepest

Are the hardest to convey

And this relays more sympathy

Than any words can say

It brings a prayer that we will find

The strength and courage, too

To go on as the one we love

Would surely want us to.

WHO'S WHO IN 1982

The time is 2:00 P.M., the day is October 10, the year is 1982. Americans will remember this day. Future children will read about it in their history books. For today, the President of the United States will christen the most remarkable invention of all times.

In order that we might not miss out on this, the supreme moment in the forward pace of years and centuries, let us join an average American family as they view the great event on their astrovision receiver. We have chosen to visit in the home of the Roger Morrises' who live just outside Helena, Montana on a turkey ranch. Mrs. Morris, the former Miss Karen Carte, has assured us that we are welcome.

We have arrived just in time! The flourish of the fanfare played by the brass section of the Boston Pops Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Sue Riggle, heralds the Huffman-Bowyer Report. Come in, Dave and Jim.

"Good evening, fellow Americans this is Dave Huffman . . .

"And this is Jim Bowyer, bringing you an up to the minute coverage of this thrilling historical moment."

"Ladies and gentlemen, the crowd here in Washington is overwhelming. The Danko Helicopter Parking Areas are filled to the brim. By the way, Jim, don't you think the orchestra did a fine job?"

"Yes, I do, Dave. Bev Hurt, Sandra Walls and Sharon Withrow, the leading brass, certainly added spice to the music. Now, Dave, I see you have some important people there with you. Let's talk to them while we are waiting for President Pat Fragile to make his appearance."

"Fine idea, Jim. Here on my right is the chief astronaut of the U. S. A., Andrew Lucas. He just returned from the first orbit around Pluto. Do you have a few words to say, Andy?"

"People of the United States, please don't let them do this to me!"

"Thank you, Andy. Now, on my left is the celebrated Dr. John Pack Hindsley with his lovely assistant, Miss Nikki Williamson. Dr. Hindsley discovered the cure for infected, ingrown toenails. Being camera shy, he has asked not to be recognized. Now, Jim, do you have a surprise for us?"

"Yes, I do Dave. Here to witness the great event with us today is Miss America of 1966, the former Miss Vicki Massey. Oh! Rev. Michael McMahan is stepping up the platform to deliver a prayer of Thanksgiving. Let us join the correspondents on the platform.

"That was very inspirational. Now folks, here comes President Pat C. Fragile and the very attractive First Lady, Mrs. Sally Sotak Fragile. They now congratulate the inventors of Herkumer, the Place Machine. They are Roy Hambric and Jack Ambrosiana. They were flown to Washington early today on VWA Rocket."

"VWA, Jim?"

"Yes, Dave, Vidovich World Airlines." The President's aid, Bill Wooten, is brushing the dust off Pat's chair. His designer, Martha Phipps, would have fits if he ruined his polyethelene suit. Private First Class, Bill Peck, rises to push the magic button, while Mrs. Fragile samples a delicious radar doughnut, presented to her by Betty Burns, a Kessinger-Ellison Cookie Company Employee.

"Now, with a belch of smoke and a thundering roar, Herkumer begins to work. The first place the President selects is Miami, where we catch a glimpse of the floor show at Mac Porterfield's Copa Cabanna. Mickey Bowles is playing that famous golden trumpet while Sandra Miller, Jo Ann Casey, Ann Korn, Judy Harvey, Carolyn Pierce, and Joan Mills, the talented Copaetts, present their dance and song routine. Headwaiter Bob Via steps into the picture carrying the well-known Linda Zorrio Pizza and Treasa Littlejohn Ravioli.

"Hold everything, Jim! We've lost our picture momentarily, but I'm sure our technician Bill Hess will have things working soon."

"Yes, now we're on the air again, just in time for a station break."

"Hello, folks, I'm Big Bane Sarrett, All-American football player, and I want to tell you about Babich, the best chewing gum anywhere. Nine out of ten agree, Babich is best!"

"Thank you, Big Bane. Jim, isn't this unbelievable?"

"Yes, Dave, it's fantastical, the way this machine, with no cameras, focuses itself anywhere. Now the President is turning to Madison Square Garden, where the Beckley Globe Trotters, coached by the first woman coach, Nancy Elkins are playing. The team is composed of Ron Cimala, Dale Oglesby, John Myles, Roger Burns, and David Barksdale. Robert Wood is selling concessions, along with his assistants Susan File, Vicki Wender, and Lois Wood, who are now competing for the title of "Most Successful Seller."

"Wait Jim, isn't that Dr. Mike Shumate in the first row, sitting beside Dennis Hill?"

"I think that is Dr. Shumate, who was voted the "Most Painful Dentist of the Year." Behind him are Mrs. Lana Houchins Oglesby, "Mrs. America of the Year," and the former Nancy Bowyer, "Homemaker of the Year."

"Apparently President Fragile wants to find out the latest Hollywood news, for Hollywood columnist, Mary Lou Garrison, is coming into focus. No, it can't be! Do you see what I see, Jim?"

"Yes, Dave, it says right there at the top of Mary Lou's column that leading man Al Walker and model Sheila Phillips are getting a divorce. Linda Smith, also a model, is held responsible for the breakup. She let her friend in on a few facts about Al."

"I see Jim, that Lunch at Wender's, starring Jack Carper and Linda Fontana is currently playing at Stephen Brooks's Theater in New York City, located across the street from the quaint Delicatessan owned by Shirley Puckett and Gracie Winegar. Robert Zeurn and Mary Swann, the greatest comedy team since Abbot and Costello, are making a public appearance here tonight, so their booking agent, Carol Goodman, says."

"Now the machine takes us to Honolulu, where a Hawaiian Beach Party is in progress, given by millionaire, David Barksdale. The surf board riders in the morning sunlight, are Lillianne Davis, Lois Lynch, and Neta Skiles, the 1981 National Champs. Entertainment for the event is being presented by hula dancers Tracie Giadellia, Lynn Hoffman, Suzi Thomas, Irene Thompson, and Carol Price. The luscious fruits for the event are products of The Faull Fancy Fruit Company."

"Well, Dave, I don't know where time flys to, but ours is just about gone. I see the Herkumer, the Place Machine, has given a QUIT signal, which means that it will not tune in other places today because its transistors are exhausted. However, I think this invention is truly the greatest in history."

"Right, Jim. I hate to quit viewing America and Americans now, for there are many other outstanding people and places in this land of ours, blessed with peace and prosperity, through the works, hopes, and prayers of all in our democratic society; but perhaps we'll be able to witness the remarkable works of this machine in another on-the-spot-news-coverage. Until then, this is Dave Huffman . . ."

"And Jim Bowyer, wishing you a pleasant good night."

CRIMES OF THE CLASS OF '62

On November 27, 1961, Al Walker, Mike Shumate, Pat Fragile, and Bane Sarrett were convicted of "penny-pitching" during the Operetta. All pleaded insanity and were deprived of their diplomas.

On December 8, 1961, Mary Swan was convicted of "taking entirely too many pictures for the Eagle Dispatch, thus overrunning the budget." She pleaded guilty and agreed to pay costs of $481.73 for the film.

John Stockwell, Danny George, Daniel Massey, and George Smith, the Woodrow Wilson "ice team," were convicted of the "ice-cube-in-the-seat-of-Mr. Carte" caper. The guilty one was never found, so all were duly executed.

Mary Lou Garrison and Gracie Giadella were convicted of talking incessantly during Mr. Carte's 5th period social science class. Both pleaded guilty (for three hours) and were released on probation.

Danny Williams and Paul Williams were convicted by Mrs. Durrance as being "disturbing elements" during home room period. Both pleaded guilty and were separated for the remainder of the year.

Susan File, Joan Mills, Vicki Wender, Martha Phipps, Lana Houchins, and Sally Sotak, WWHS cheerleaders, were sued by Coach Nelson Bragg and quarterback Ronnie Cimala for "causing the crowd to yell extremely loud during the football games, thus confusing Cimala's signals." They all pleaded guilty and were fined $150,000.

Barbara Gwynn, co-editor of the Eagle Dispatch, was convicted by sponsor Mr. Kiser of "nagging inexcusably at sports editors William Hess and Mac Porterfield." She pleaded guilty and was promptly fired.

Mickey Bowles, Robert Zuern, Sandra Walls, Beverly Hurt, Frank Gieskie, Lynn Hoffman, Charlotte Connor, Claudette Coleman, and Lena Ramey were convicted by Mr. Sallack for playing incorrectly during the Christmas concert. All were astonished at finally getting caught, and were given 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9th seats, respectively, in third band (which doesn't exist).

Don Surbaugh was convicted of selling season elevator tickets to the innocent sophomores. After the trial, Don agreed to return the money, which totaled $37.50.

Shirley Puckett was convicted of "walking out" on Mrs. McClure, preceding the Operetta. She must now, according to her sentence, return to WWHS each year, for the next 20 years, and play the piano for Mrs. McClure.

Jack Ambrosiani was convicted of smuggling beakers, test tubes, crucibles, burettes, and various equipment from drawer 34, Chemistry laboratory, to his home. He was caught by Mr. Jarrell on the last day of school and agreed to return them, slightly used.

Shelia Phillips and Carol Goodman were convicted by Mrs. Vass of "over-acting during the Senior Class Play, thus being labeled by the audience as 'hams' ". Carol pleaded guilty and was released. Sheila could not see during the trial because of a lost contact lens.

Larry Meadows was convicted of "harrassing Mrs. McClure with such remarks as 'Well, it's not my problem', and 'I give up!' " Larry was found guilty but was not sentenced, for he was needed to sing during the assemblies.

TO THE JUNIORS AND SOPHOMORES:

We, as seniors of Woodrow Wilson High School, regret to have been so mischievous during our three years in high school. The total of our felonies and misdemeanors is approximately $345,000. Our treasury, unfortunately, contains only $1,562.93. Thus, it is up to you, the juniors and sophomores, to pay the remaining balance of $343,437.07.

Sincerely and regretfully yours,

The Senior Class of '62

WRESTLING

The Flying Eagle wrestling squad, under Coach Victor Peelish, made an excellent showing this year. They finished first in the Coalfield Conference with a seven and two record, tied for first in the Regional Wrestling Tournament, and finished 5th in the state wrestling tournament at Morgantown.

Tom Vidovich won a state championship for the Eagles, and Gary Floyd, Mike Shumate and Roger Morris placed second, third, and fourth respectively.

SENIOR CLASS WILLS

We, the members of the most distinguished, intelligent, and famous Senior Class of 1962 realize that with our departure, Woodrow Wilson High School will lose the most powerful sustaining section of the student body. Fearing that the remaining students will never be able to recuperate from this great loss, we have decided to write our last will and testament.

I, Neta Skiles, will to Sandra Salango the beat up tennis shoes that I wore last summer during band practice with the hope that she will give them the same tender loving care that I did.

I, Vicki Massey, being of sound mind and body, will my very well worn dictionary to Judy Meadows in hopes that she will pass English 12.

I, Mac Porterfield, drivers license number 0881696 and social security number 235-68-0846, do hereby will to Terry Branson and Frankie Spinelli my immortal words of "uh-1, uh-2, uh-1-2-3-4."

We, Mike Shumate and Bob Via, will to Everett Wray and Jim Monk our scuffed-up locker in hopes that they will not have to kick it to get it closed.

I, Joyce Gunnoe, will my ability to act dumb to any junior who thinks he's smart.

I, Jimmy Haga, being of sound mind, will my black hair and "Chevy" to Jack Cottle and hope he does as I did with them.

We, Ann Korn and Carol Price, being of sound minds and bodies, will to Mary Ellen Houchins and Katy Jo Vargo the ability to drive Mrs. "Mac" crazy and still get by with it.

I, John Myles, will my ability to "brownie" my teachers to any junior who is unfortunate enough to have the same ones next year.

I, Frank Gieske, being of sound mind and body, will nothing to nobody because I'll need everything I got.

I, Sandra Walls, being of unsound mind, will my big mouth, silly actions and ability to get into trouble, to Lila Ashworth in hopes that she can drive as many people crazy, and talk herself out of as many messes as I have.

We, Sally Sotak and Susan File, will our worn-out escort, Pat Fragile to the next Homecoming Queen and Miss Flying Eagle in hopes that they appreciate him as much as we did.

We, the Senior Trumpeteers of the Flying Eagle Band, will our ability to monopolize all of Mr. Sallack's time in band practice to next year's trumpeteers.

I, Mary Swan, will my great ability to take sharp pictures to any sophomore or junior stupid enough to volunteer or be drafted for the job.

I, Paulette Babich, will to Sandra Shriver all the fright I have encountered in playing oboe in the concerts and hope she finds more effective tranquilizers than I did.

I, Suzi Thomas, being of unsound mind and big mouth, will my ability to say the wrong thing, at the wrong time, in the wrong place, and in front of the wrong people to Tiki Janney in hopes that she doesn't get into as much trouble as I did.

I, Sandra Miller, being of unsound mind and warped heart, will to Jean and Joan Walker my lost time on one love affair in hopes that they will be smart enough to love many and not just one.

We, Terry Jacobs and Andy Lucas, will our bag of marshmallows to anyone else hungry enough to roast them over a bunsen burner in chemistry while Mr. Jarrell is out of the room.

I, Lois Wood, will my ability to break $2.60 of equipment in chemistry on the first experiment to any sophomore or junior clumsy as I am.

We, the four majorettes of the class of '62: Becky Broome—Head, Lynn Hoffman, Charlotte Connor and Bunny Ramey, will our batons and whistles to any junior girl in the band who are deserving and hope that they will have as much fun as we have had.

SPRING

BASEBALL

Last year's team, participating in high school baseball for the first time in several years, enjoyed phenomenal success. The 1961 Eagles lost but 2 games and finished second in State High School Baseball Tournament. Led by Captain David Barksdale and veterans Pat Fragile, Paul Williams, Pack Hindsley, Tom Vidovich, Walter Roger, Ronald Thompson, William Hess, this team is expected to attain even greater accomplishments.

TRACK

The Flying Eagles are again faced with an imposing track schedule. However, in view of the fine array of returning lettermen, Coach Nelson Bragg is looking hopefully toward the coming track season. Led by co-captains, Ron Cimala, Earnest Calfee, and Roger Morris, we are certain that Beckley's thinclads will bring honor to Woodrow Wilson High School.

WOODROW WILSON HIGH SCHOOL CREED

I believe in the cooperation of all for the welfare of our school.

To work and to study; to be honest and generous;

To be willing to give as well as to take;

To besiege pettiness and self-indulgence;

To have self-confidence and self-control;

To realize that little things create quarrels, but in the big things of life we are one;

To stand by each other in weal or woe; success or failure.

To be loyal and conscientious to our school in thought, word, and deed, and to always give her our best efforts.

I believe that each and everyone, in an honest endeavor to fulfill these virtues as students of Woodrow Wilson High School will grow to feel pride in a student body.

FLYING EAGLE MARCH

By Roy Lee Harmon

Glenn Sallack

Let's give a cheer for Beckley High
The Eagles are out to do or die
Let's make the echoes ring
We never give up, we never give in
We battle along until we win
So let us sing, sing, sing
Now why should we fear a mighty foe
We do our best and lay them low
To gain the victors crown
So pep it up for the Eagle Crew
A band then that is hardy and tried and true
And ready for renown.

Chorus

You can't beat the Flying Eagles
You can't beat that Beckley team
The maroon and white will fight, fight, fight
And Beckley will prove supreme
You can't kill that Beckley spirit
And we're out to win today
So Hail, Hail, we'll never fail
Our Eagles are on their way
So here's to our Beckley High School
The fairest in all the land.
We'll win the game, and spread the fame
Of Beckley High School's blessed name
And our Flying Eagle Band.

RAYMOND V. MARTIN
Sponsor

To Mr. Raymond V. Martin, our class sponsor, we wish to offer a note of thanks for his patience and guidance. He has helped to make every season of the past three years a real joy and success.

Remember

As we walk back together down Memory Lane
Through the seasons—Autumn, Winter, and Spring—
It's a memorable mixture of thoughts that we gain
As the years now reviewed fondly bring.

August 31, 1959! Sophomore registration day and schedule run. How small we felt—how big WWHS looked. Somehow we survived. Soon we felt more secure under the guidance of our class sponsor, Mr. Raymond Martin, and our newly elected officers, Lena Ramey, Lana Houchins, David Huffman, and Roger Burns.

The bright leaves of autumn fell, the snows came—and disappeared. Then came the Sophomore party, like a breath of spring, called "April Love." We gaily danced away the cares of the year in joyful anticipation of vacation days soon to be. We were no longer the "green horns." We were only one year older, but felt many years wiser.

September 7, 1960! We were the "Juniors." Confidently we looked forward to a year of promise under the leadership of our class officers, Lena Ramey, Al Walker, Lana Houchins, and David Huffman.

In December, a well-seasoned Junior Class play called, "Onions in the Stew," directed by Mr. Julian Williams, was warmly received by the student body. Also, in December, our first class members were inducted into the newly organized National Honor Society. They were Barbara Gwynn, Pack Hindsley, Vicki Massey, Shirley Puckett, and Frances Wood. In the early part of the new year, a WWHS Junior, Bane Sarrett, was chosen best basketball player in the state by Dells Sports Magazine. On "An April Evening," the Flying Eagle Band presented a colorful minstrel by the same name.

At the Junior party everyone slid down the slicky-slide into the old-fashioned barn dance. In the spring we climbed the "Stairway to the Stars" at the Junior-Senior Prom, and felt very close to our next goal, that of being known as the "Seniors."

August 31, 1961. The Class of '62 had arrived. It was our turn to reign, and we were led by the same class officers. Tom Vidovich was elected to preside over student body assemblies as president of the Student Council.

The football team (5-5) was led by co-captains Tom Vidovich, Dale Oglesby, John Myles and Bane Sarrett. Following colorful performances by the Flying Eagle Band and enthusiastic leading by the cheerleaders Susan File, Joan Mills, Sally Sotak, Lana Houchins, Vicki Wender, and Martha Phipps, a season highlight was the crowning of the lovely Homecoming Queen, Sally Sotak. Her attendants were Beverly Hurt, Joyce Bandy, and Nikki Williamson. Reigning at the final game of the season was Miss Flying Eagle, Susan File, attended by Karen Carte, Lana Houchins, and Tresa Littlejohn.

The Senior Class Play was a dramatic portrayal, directed by Mrs. Frank Vass, called "The Death and Life of Larry Benson." An operetta, "Seventeen," was directed by Mrs. Paul McClure.

Class leaders of the various organized sports were: Basketball, Bane Sarrett, Captain; Wrestling, Tom Vidovich, Gary Floyd, co-captains; Baseball, David Barksdale, captain; Track, Ernest Calfee, Ronnie Cimala, Roger Morris, co-captains.

From registration to graduation, the years have glided swiftly by. Familiar halls and friends must soon be left behind. May the impressions we have made and felt as the Class of '62 linger fondly in our memories down through the years to come.

SMILE, Pack . . .
You're on Candid Camera!

Something's Missing!

"Is this the way
to the elevator?"

"Yup, Watch your step, please."

Oh! To be young again!

Has anyone seen my Charles Atlas Book?

Remember the day we "took to the woods?"

Wanna Fight?

And how will YOU vote on the Big Issue?

Don't be absurd! . . .
I'm one of those who "think young."

AGHHHHH! I can't stand it!

Well boys, looks like we'll have to brew our own!

WHO IS

ON THE OTHER SIDE?

GUESS

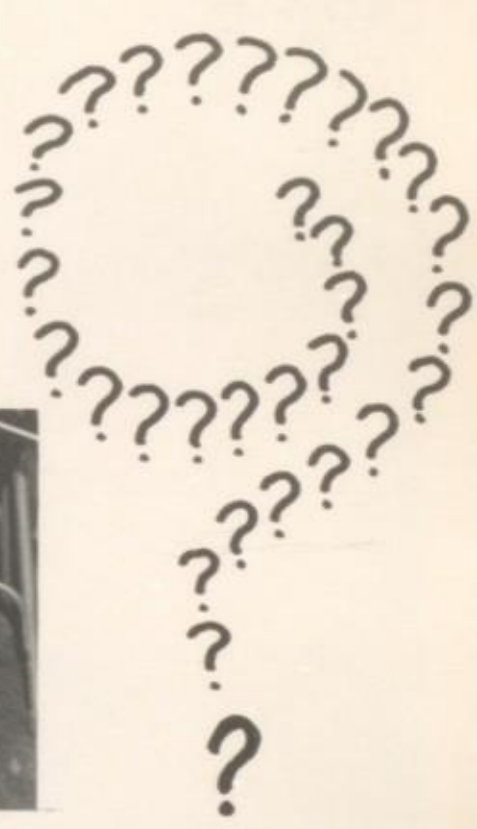
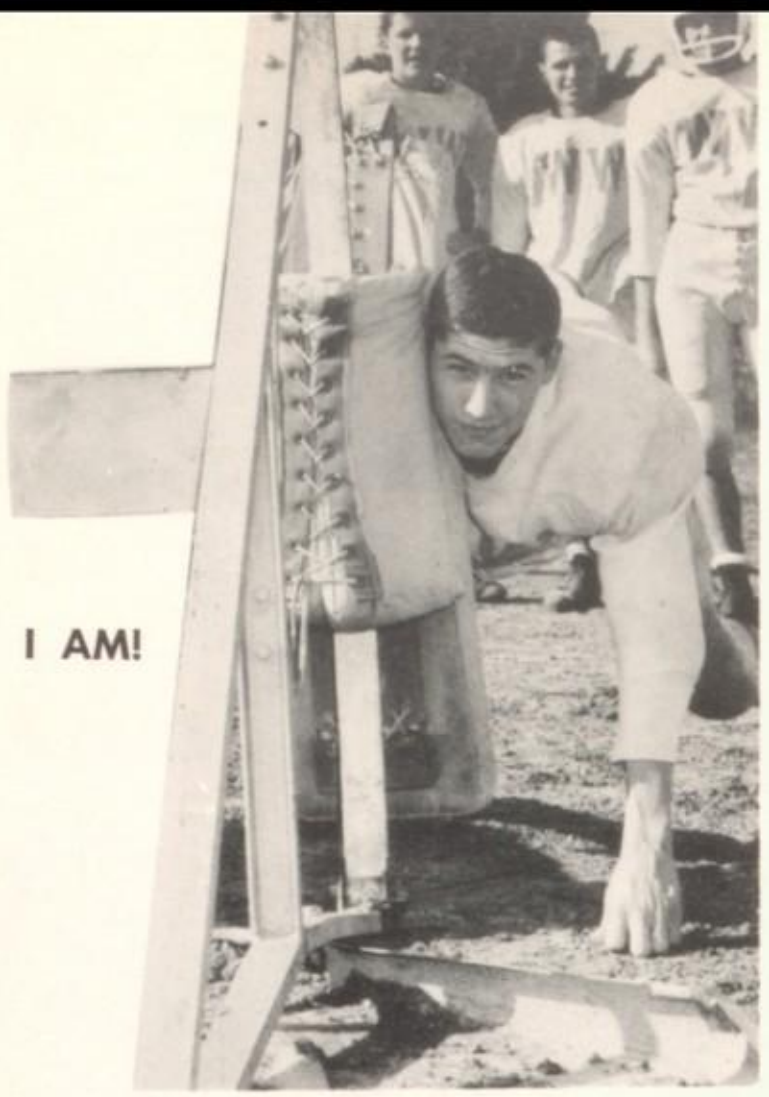
BRAIN-STRAIN PAGE



Guess whose lovely legs these are

(See next page for revealing solutions)



I AM!

Rose Allen
Sally Sotak

Dale Oglesby Sandra Miller

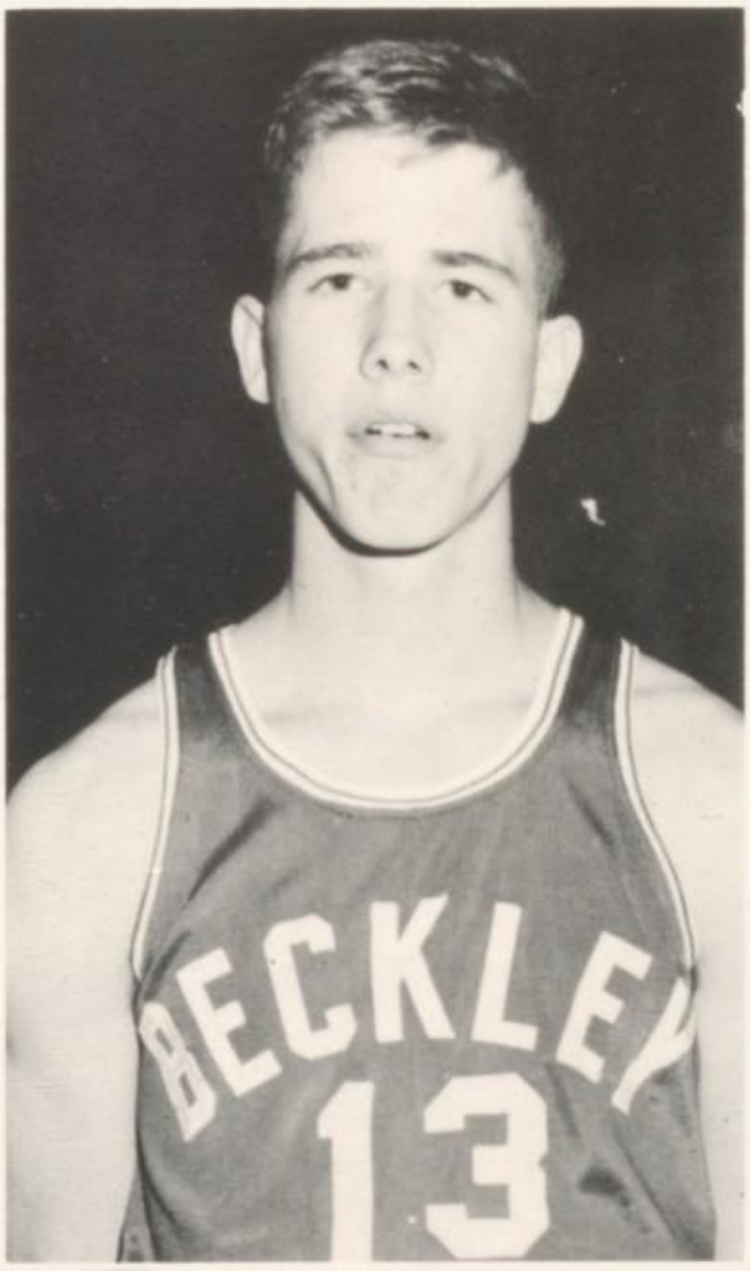
The answer to the leg question

"Weren't they Marvelous?"

"Fair, I guess. But I've seen better."

Who told the joke?

I DID!



WELL,
WE
THINK
VERY FUNNY!!

Now, we must pack our bags
after the end of a perfect year . . .

But,

Before we go, we'd like to say

Thanks, Woodrow,

You've been swell!
